

St Kilda Festival

St Kilda Festival Sunday 10 February 2019

Parking access, conditions and road closures - Area D

The St Kilda Festival is fast approaching. This year's Festival date is Sunday 10 February 2019.

As in previous years there will be a number of full and partial road closures that affect the access to your area on Festival Sunday between the hours of 3 am to 12 midnight.

We apologise in advance for any inconvenience caused by these road closures and hope the information provided will help minimise any disruption to your household.

Please find the following enclosed Vehicle Access Pass with a road closure map.

You must display your Area D Vehicle Access Pass on your vehicle on Sunday 10 February 2019 to gain access.

The only access point for residents within Area D is via Princes Street from Barkly Street.

Please note there will be heavy traffic in this location and delays can be expected.

Full road closures

Other information

- Blessington Street, between Chaucer and Spenser streets (carpark) will be closed to traffic and general public
- Beach Road will be accessible via side streets for local traffic access only, between Kerferd Road and St Kilda Street without an access pass, with consideration of the above full and partial road closures

Taxis and rideshare vehicles

- Taxis and rideshare vehicles such as Uber, Sheebah and DiDi, will not be allowed within the road closure areas on Festival Sunday
- All rideshare phone apps will geo-block riders selecting any area within the road closure to limit traffic (including your address)
- The taxi rank located at the corner of Fitzroy and Acland streets will be closed on Sunday 10 February 2019

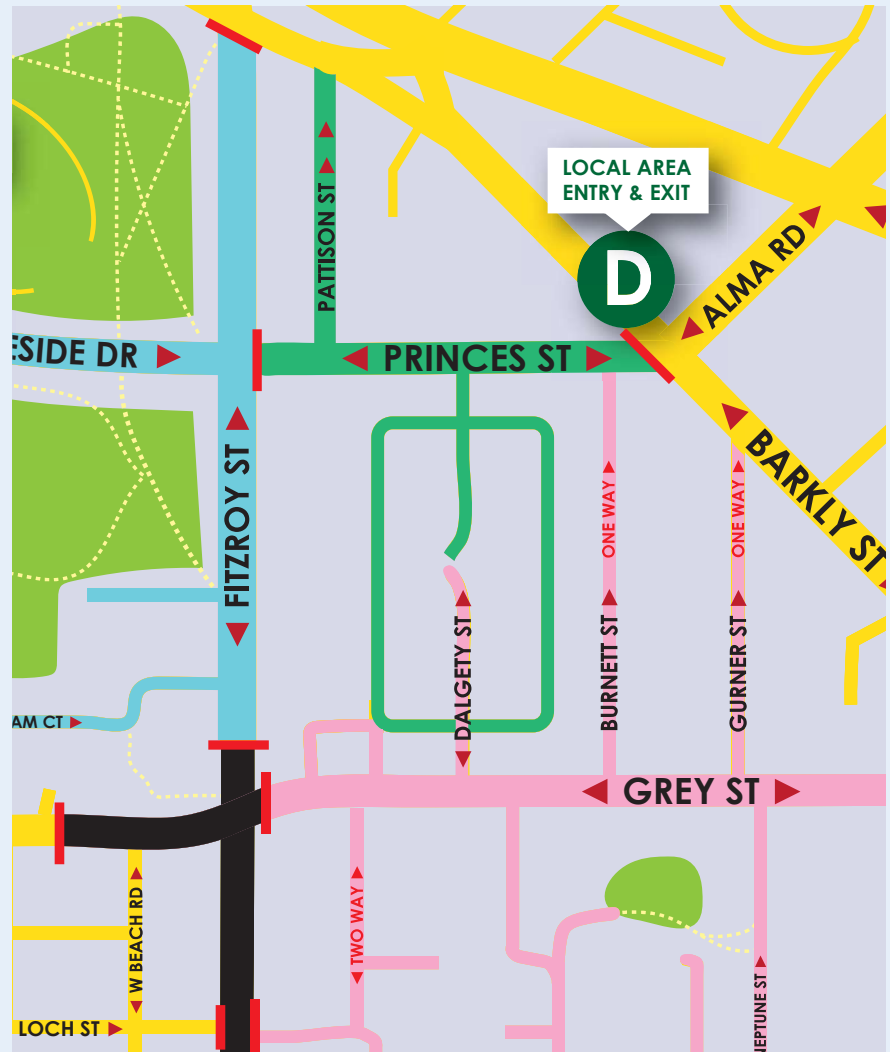

Temporary taxi rank locations

- Fitzroy Street along the Junction Oval
- Shakespeare Grove, between Marine Parade and Spenser Street

Our highest priority is to ensure a safe festival precinct for all involved, whilst minimising disturbance to your household. We trust the information supplied here clearly explains the changed traffic conditions, which will be in place on Sunday 10 February 2019.
